

It's the night before Jesus is going to be killed on a cross. He gathers his disciples for the Passover meal. Before it begins, he washes all of their feet, which is a servant's job. He wants to teach them—and us—one last lesson before his death. Jesus shows us how to serve.

"I have given you an example to follow. Do as I have done to you" (John 13:15).

Family Together Time

Use this unique twist on foot washing to get your family members serving each other.

- Have everyone get his or her dirtiest pair of shoes.
- Have everyone trade the dirty pairs of shoes.
- Wash each other's shoes over a sink or tub. Scrub the bottoms of the shoes until they look as good as new!
- Get your shoes back, and talk about what it was like serving each other that way.
- Talk about when it's fun to serve and when it's kind of gross.
