

The Murphy Moment—Notes from a Dog-sciple!

Happy Thursday from my warm basket in the Sunday School room at St. John's! It is quiet today but I know that on Sunday we will all be back together for Sunday School! Speaking of which, do you remember our lesson from last week: "Abram trusted God to keep his promises. We can trust in God's promises too"! Isn't it wonderful to know that God loves us and we can trust him to always be there for us!

Thank you Praise Team for teaching us our new song: Jesus Loves Me! They sent me the words so I can share them with you:

Jesus loves me, this I know, for the Bible tells me so
Little ones to He belong, they are weak but he is strong
Yes, Jesus loves me, Yes, Jesus loves me, Yes, Jesus loves me
The Bible tells me so

There are many fun versions of this song on YouTube so ask your family to share one so you can sing along! Here is one of my favorites: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=EnB7Qbx32vo>

Don't forget that Pastor is starting our Children's message that leads us to Easter using the nesting eggs she showed us. If you missed it, they are amazing. Egg upon egg all with pictures of the story of the Resurrection. There are so many exciting things going on ... I hope you will all be able to join us soon.

Hugs, pawprints and prayers for a happy week,

Murphy

Crafts and activities before Sunday School—approximately 9:30 a.m..

Sunday School begins — 10:00 a.m.

Children's Message/Worship begins after Prayers of the People.

Don't forget, I get lost easy so make sure to find me and bring me to Sunday School. I don't want to miss hearing about Jesus.
