Jesus' life is filled with joy and sadness.

Jesus' Last Week

It was Jesus' last week on earth. On Sunday, people laughed. They shouted, "Hosanna!" and waved palm branches to welcome Jesus as King.

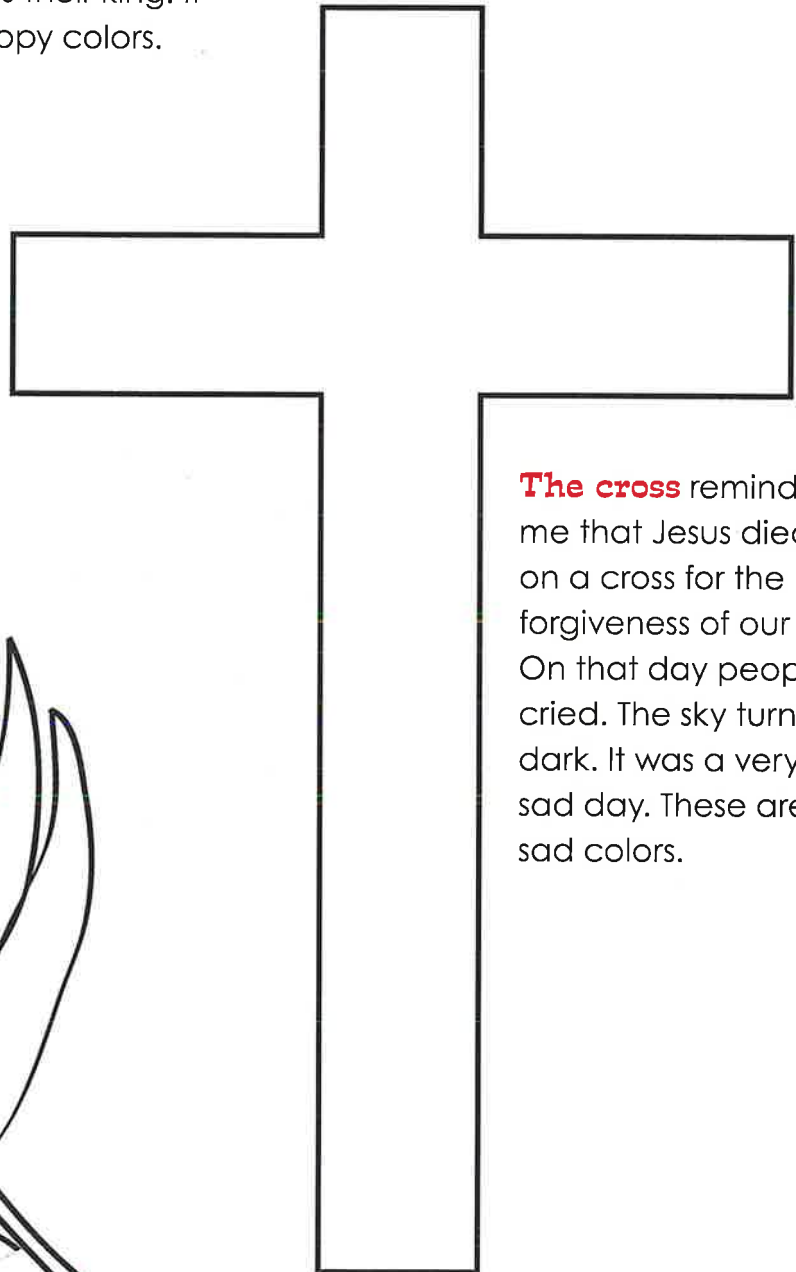

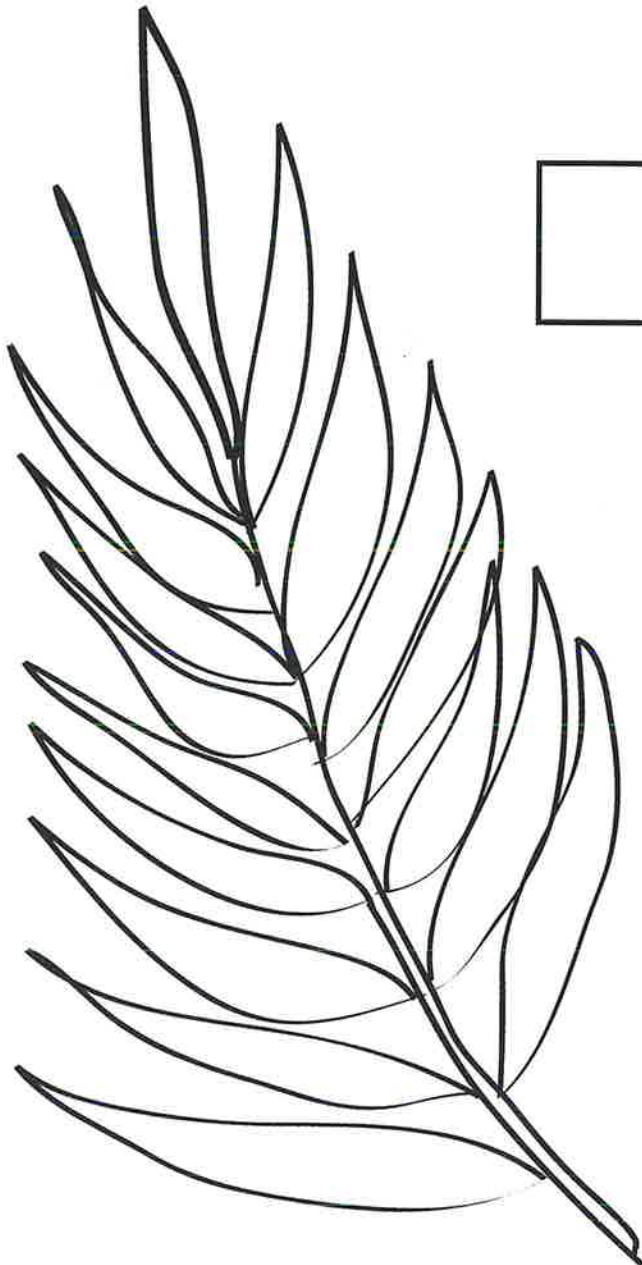

On Friday, people cried as they watched Jesus on the cross. The world grew very dark. The work God gave Jesus to do as a man on earth was finished. Then Jesus died for you and me.

Today's Bible stories, Palm Sunday and The Day Jesus Died, are from the book of Luke. Luke tells the whole story of Jesus—from his birth to his death and resurrection.

Holy Week Symbols

Church symbols can help me remember happy and sad times in Jesus' life.

The palm branch reminds me of the day Jesus rode a donkey into Jerusalem. People waved palm branches to welcome Jesus as their king. It was a happy day. These are my happy colors.

The cross reminds me that Jesus died on a cross for the forgiveness of our sins. On that day people cried. The sky turned dark. It was a very sad day. These are my sad colors.

Holy Week Places

Many places Jesus went during Holy Week are the same or look like places in Israel that people still go to today.

A view from outside the city of Jerusalem. Do you see the old city wall?

Jesus died on a rocky hill outside Jerusalem. The place was called Golgotha, which means "skull."

A narrow street in the old city part of Jerusalem.

After Jesus died, they placed his body in a tomb. Jesus' tomb was a cave. Because Jerusalem is built on rocky ground, many bodies were buried in caves.
