

The Murphy Moment—Notes from a Dog-sciple!

Hi everyone, it's me Murphy—writing to you from my doggie bath. Just like we learned in Sunday School on Sunday that Mary washed the feet of Jesus to show how much she loved Him, I too got a bath to show how much all of you love me! Thank you, I am all squeaky clean!

This week as we celebrate Palm Sunday and then Easter we will hear a lot about how much Jesus loves us, so it is important that we remember how much we love Jesus.

Here I am just out of the bubbles!

How do you show Jesus you love him? Do you talk to Him in prayer? Do you sing songs of praise? Do you share how special Jesus is with others? We will learn on Easter that there is no greater love than the love of Jesus—it washes away your sins and makes you as clean and shiny as I am after my bath!

Some fun things to remember: this Sunday Pastor will reveal what's in the final nesting egg—or, perhaps, what is not ... and we will hang our Journey to the Cross sign with all of our footprints! Guess what? Guess what? We also get to take home our nesting egg to enjoy every year! I don't know about you, but I wish today was Sunday! I can't wait ... I will see you all on Sunday!

Hugs, pawprints and prayers for a happy week,

Murphy

Crafts and activities before Sunday School—approximately 9:30 a.m.

Sunday School begins — 10:00 a.m.

Parents: this Sunday the kids will parade in with Pastor with their palms before heading to Sunday School

Children's Message/Worship begins after Prayers of the People.

Don't forget, I get lost easy so make sure to find me and bring me to Sunday School. I don't want to miss hearing about Jesus.
