

The Murphy Moment—Notes from a Dog-sciple!

Easter Sunday is almost here! Are you excited!

I am so excited. This will be my first Easter with St. John's and all of you wonderful kids! I can't wait to see what Easter is all about. Do you know what Easter is all about? Let's find out together! I truly want to know why the empty cross, the empty cave means so much to the world! Do you know? I have a feeling that it's all about how much Jesus loves us! What do you think?

Our Sunday School teachers were telling me this week that there is a special greeting that happens on Sunday, so I have been practicing. On Easter morning when someone says "He is Risen", we say in our biggest voices "He is Risen Indeed"! Do you want to practice with me:

Murphy: "He is Risen"

You: "He is Risen Indeed"

Remember to tell all your parents, grandparents, guardians that there are a lot of fun things going on this Easter Sunday (April 17):

- ◆ BIG breakfast for everyone 9:00 a.m.
- ◆ Processional Parade for the kids: 10:00 a.m.
- ◆ Egg Hunt: after services (approximately 11:00 a.m.)

For those who haven't made (or finished) their flags for the parade, we will have the flags and crayons out during breakfast so that you can finish them up and wave them big and high as we celebrate all the emptiness that brings us such joy!

He is Risen! He is Risen Indeed!

Murphy

I won't be hiding this week so that I can join in the Easter parade! Look for me there!
