

The Murphy Moment—Notes from a Dog-sciple!

Woof! Woof! Guess what I found when I was roaming about the church—candy!! Now what do you think that is for? Woof! Woof! I know! It's for our big Easter egg hunt after Easter services on Sunday, April 17.

So much excitement coming: on Palm Sunday we will be raising our Journey to the Cross banner with all of our footsteps that we made to walk beside Jesus as He made His triumphant entry into the City. Then, we will get to enter the church like we're in a parade to wave our palms and rejoice, Hosana! It will be great fun. I bet, that Pastor will even tell us the message in our final nesting egg. Don't miss it.

But there is more, on Easter Sunday—we celebrate our Risen Lord—Yes, Jesus Christ is Risen on Easter Sunday! Don't miss it. We are going to get to have another parade and wave our Resurrection flags, sing, rejoice ... and, there is a big breakfast with lots of food and then, the Easter Egg hunt after the rejoicing.

all

That is, of course ... if there is any candy left!

Hugs, pawprints and prayers for a happy week,

Murphy
