

The Murphy Moment—Notes from a Dog-sciple!

Easter Sunday was amazing! Were you excited! I still am excited.
This was my first Easter with St. John's and all of you wonderful kids!
I was so excited to see what Easter is all about. I now understand why the empty cross, the empty cave mean so much to the world!
It's all about Jesus loving us!

We have had so much fun over the Lenten and Easter season learning about Jesus and all that he has done for us. Now, as we return to Sunday School, we are going to learn what we can do to spread the word that God loves all people. We are going to have some wonderful new craft projects, a new storybook to share during our time with Pastor and all the joy of being together as Children of God! I hope all of you will be able to join us this Sunday!

Oh, and now that Easter is over ... I plan to get into mischief again so be sure to remind the Sunday School teachers to find me so I don't miss learning with all of you!

See you Sunday! I cannot wait to hear about all of your Easter celebrations. In the meantime, here are just a few pictures from Easter. I would love to see your pictures too so that we can share them with one another.

Don't forget:

He is Risen! He is Risen Indeed!

Hallelujah!
