God welcomes everyone!

Peter's Animal Dream

One night Peter had a dream.

In his dream, Peter saw many different kinds of animals. God told Peter to eat all the animals he saw.

Peter figured out that this dream wasn't really about eating. It was about welcoming all people to God's family!

Today's Bible story, Peter's Dream, is from the book of Acts. Acts tells the story of the 12 apostles. The word apostle means "messenger with a special mission."

The apostles traveled far and wide to teach everyone about Jesus and start new churches.

Food Rules

People in different places of the world eat food that might be different from the food you eat. The rules of some religions don't allow people to eat certain kinds of foods.

Some Jewish laws about food say that people can't eat bread on holy days, but they can eat flat crackers called matza.

Jewish and Islam laws say that people can eat fish with fins, but not shellfish like lobsters.

Many Catholics don't eat meat on Fridays during Lent, but they do eat fish.

Some people choose to eat only fruits and vegetables.

No matter what foods people do or don't eat, all people are part of God's family.

God welcomes everyone!
