

The Murphy Moment—Notes from a Dog-sciple!

I was so excited when I became a Dog-sciple—a follower of Jesus. This Sunday I learned that we are now Apostles. “Messengers with a special message to share”. Do you know what that message is? “God Welcomes All”. We found out in the Bible, the book of Acts—that Peter had a dream with all kinds of animals in it (not just dogs—but pigs, and chickens and horses). At first, Peter didn’t really know what it meant, but then, he ran into someone who seemed different from himself who wanted to hear the story of Jesus and Peter realized that God was telling him that ALL—no just some—but ALL—are welcome in God’s kingdom. Just like all are welcome in Sunday School and right here where I live at St. John’s! Wow! Woof! Woof! I love being an Apostle too.

I have to share some other good news—Children’s Summer Bible School is coming. It starts on June 12 and it’s called “God’s Wonder Lab”. We are going to do all kinds of fun things while learning even more about the amazing Savior we have! And not only amazing in love, but amazing in all the marvelous things he has done (Psalm 98:1) ... come and join us as we hear about His miracles and what they mean for each of us ... Jesus always has a special message for us kids ... and us dogs.

From one “Messenger with a Special Message” to another ... Jesus loves you!

Have a great week and I hope to see you all on Sunday!
