

The Murphy Moment—Filled with the Holy Spirit!

It's almost here! God's Wonder Lab. I am getting so excited. Just the other day I was running about the church looking for my bone and I saw all these big boxes come in that said "God's Wonder Lab" - what could be in them! What fun could be hiding ... I might just have to chew my way in and find out ... maybe there are even some treats for doggies like me in there.

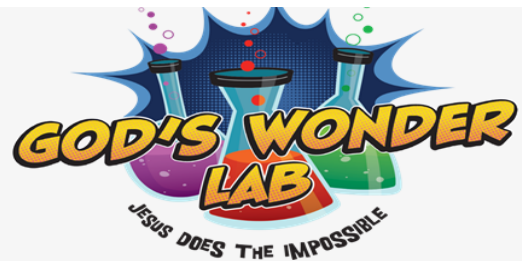

But first we have some exciting stuff coming up this Sunday, June 5—it is Pentecost Sunday. Do you know what that means? It's the day where we celebrate the Holy Spirit—yes part of the Big Three—Father, Son and HOLY SPIRIT! Pentecost is a celebration of the promise that we will never be alone but that Jesus through the power of the Holy Spirit will be with us always. Remember the book of Acts that we told you about in Sunday School ... well, in that book it says that we will all receive "power to be His witnesses to the ends of the earth". Wow, that is something to celebrate! So, wear red—that is the color of Pentecost—and come join us.

There will also be a confirmation of some of our older Sunday School friends, Yan and Danika! I bet there will even be food—there is always food when we celebrate (smiles)! Save some for Murphy!

Let the Holy Spirit soar ... I will see you on Pentecost Sunday.

Have a great week and I hope to see you all on Sunday!
